The First Sunday after Pentecost: Trinity Sunday

Church Under the Bridge this weekend

Mark your calendars for Church Under the Bridge this Sunday, May 30, at 3 p.m. at Mission House, the corner of 4th Street and Martin Luther King. Because he's retiring, this is the last time our Rector will give the sermon for this ministry. If you've never heard the amazing interfaith sermon preached by Fr. Bob Sessum, this is your last chance. Church Under the Bridge leaders have let us know that more people are living on the edge than ever before in our community, so we are expecting many guests that day. We hope you can come out and share a couple of hours serving a meal to our homeless and minimally housed neighbors.

Help with supplies

Many supplies are needed for Vacation Bible School, June 7-11. Please look at the partial list below and let Deacon Lauren know if there are items you wish to provide. A complete list is available in the Loggia. Supplies must be brought to the church by June 1 so the remaining things can be purchased. Put your name on anything you want returned to you.

Our mission at the Church of the Good Shepherd is to worship God and proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to honor our Episcopal tradition, to care for one another within our parish family, and to reach out in loving service to our community and the world.

Summer schedule begins

Our Sunday morning worship times are now 8 and 10 a.m. through Labor Day weekend. Our popular Saturday service returns on June 5 at 5:15 p.m. Christian Formation classes for all ages resume on September 12.

Altar flowers

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God by Katie Bolin in thanksgiving for Greg Hofelich.

Banns of Marriage

We publish the Banns of Marriage between Emily Ann Furlow and Tyrus Michael White, Jr. If any of you know just cause why they should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, you are bidden to declare it. This is the third and final time of asking.

Rummage sale date changed

The Outreach Committee is having a rummage sale on Saturday, July 10. Please start looking around your home (and the homes of your friends) and think about non-clothing items you might be willing to donate. Items CANNOT be brought to the church until after Bible School concludes on June 11. Watch future newsletters for more information about help with pick-up. Call Monica Fowler at 333-7068 for more information.

Learn about the Transition

A Transition News button has been added to the Good Shepherd internet home page at www.goodshepherdlex.org. Check there for complete current information regarding the transition process at Good Shepherd.

Additionally, Dr. Kay Collier McLaughlin, Deployment Officer for the Diocese of Lexington, will visit with us on Sunday, June 6. She will speak at an Adult Forum at 9 a.m. in the Undercroft to describe what the parish can expect during the time an Interim Rector is here and also address the formation of a Nominating Committee for a new Rector. Kay has been working closely with our own Interim Rector Committee as they continue their search for a suitable candidate.

Our parish family

Congratulations to Amanda Kaiser at her graduation from Sayre School with high honors. Amanda will attend the University of Kentucky and is the daughter of Jill Kaiser.

Congratulations to Dr. Kristy Deep at being named a Fellow of the American College of Physicians this year. The official recognition and induction took place at their conference in Toronto in April.

Congratulations to Beth Davis, daughter of Charley and Nancy Davis, who organized and spoke at a workshop on human rights held recently in Jakarta. The workshop included leaders from Zimbabwe, Iraq, Nicaragua, and Bahrain. A picture of Beth is posted on the kiosk in the Concourse.

Do you like to cook?

The Food Ministry needs a few more people to help provide meals to members of our parish family after hospitalization, a birth or death. You would not be asked more than four or five times per year to prepare food. Call Nancy Wilson at 523-2335 for more information or to volunteer.

Gently used laptops needed

Deacon Lauren needs three ethernet-capable laptops to use this fall for T Squared, a new youth program being offered. Youth will have adult-supervised access to the computers in the Youth Suite every Wednesday from 3:30 to 6 p.m. Thank you for sharing your unused laptop computers with our youth!

The First Sunday after Pentecost: Trinity Sunday

Sunday Holy Eucharist at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m.

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31; Psalm 8; Romans 5:1-5; John 16:12-15

Thank you

Please let all the people of Good Shepherd know of the gratitude of the Diocese for their hospitality for the opening Evensong at Convention. I was so happy to be able to share the service you all had developed for African American History Month, and I heard numerous comments that many in the Diocese were deeply moved by it. In fact, I heard a number of people say it was the best convention service they had ever attended.

I know no small amount of work went into making it possible, on the part of the choir, the clergy, the office staff, and many volunteers. I also believe there was some last minute printing when we ran out of toner at Mission House, which I am sure did not make life easier for anyone at Good Shepherd! I think the work you all did set the tone for the entire Convention and contributed greatly to its success. Thank you very much.

Faithfully yours,
+Stacy F. Sauls, Bishop of Lexington
